

BSSG Publicity Release for:

“LEARN TO SPIN: 101”...April 13, 2013

Do you want to learn to spin your own yarn?
 Do you have a spindle or spinning wheel and want to learn how to use it?
 Do you have a fiber animal with lots of fiber and want to spin it?

Then please join the Black Swamp Spinners’ Guild members on Saturday, April 13th, 2013 from 10- 4 at the Center Township Fire Hall at the corner of Bowling Green Rd. E. (Wooster St.) and Carter Rd. just one mile east of Meijer and I-75, exit #181.

You will learn how to prepare fibers, use a wooden drop spindle, and try many different makes of spinning wheels. There will be several displays with handspun samples, hand-dyed skeins, knitted, woven and felted items, and many books and magazines to view. There will be some items for sale.

Bring your own sack lunch, beverages and snacks will be provided.
 You will receive a bag of fibers, a spindle and a packet of handouts.

Registration deadline is April 6 with limited enrollment.
 Please contact: Susan at 419-874-5633 or caytonsj@juno.com
 Cost is $50 (includes 2013-14 membership).

Mail to: BSSG c/o Susan Cayton, 24477 Dixie Hwy., Perrysburg, Ohio 43551
